

PRIVATE HERCULES

MCGRAW

Poems of the American Civil War

S. THOMAS SUMMERS

Meet author S. Thomas Summers at the book signing of his book, Private Hercules McGraw: Poems of the American Civil War.

“Poem by poem, Private McGraw..., each poem’s speaker, shares with us his journey through the landscapes of the American Civil War. McGraw, a Confederate soldier and racist, steps into the War in order to assure that slavery will exist long enough for him to purchase a slave with hopes to impress his love, Martha. As McGraw treks through the blood and mire, experiencing both triumph and tragedy, he begins to transform into a man of peace and compassion – a man who no longer sees a black man or a white man; he simply sees a man – a fellow, a brother.” (Anaphora website)

WHEN?

June 24, 2012, 1 :00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.

WHERE?

Macculloch Hall Historical Museum
45 Macculloch Avenue
Morristown, NJ 07960

QUESTIONS?

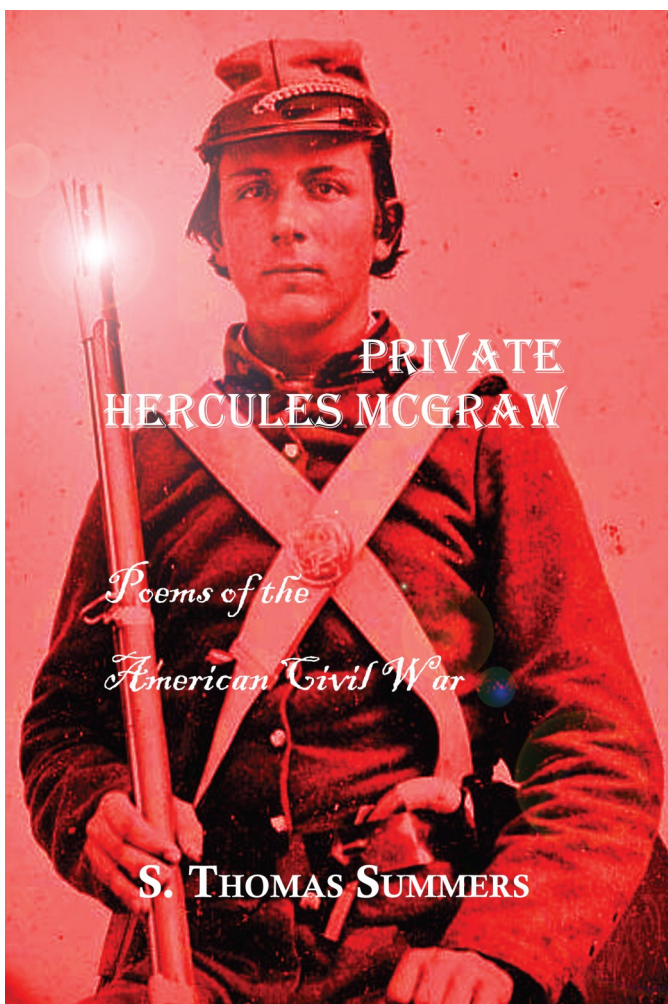

For information, call the Museum weekdays at (973) 538-2404.

PRIVATE HERCULES MCGRAW

Poems of the American Civil War

S. THOMAS SUMMERS

Meet author S. Thomas Summers at the book signing of his book, Private Hercules McGraw: Poems of the American Civil War.

$15, ISBN: 978-1-937536-14-5, LCCN: 2011945702,
86pp, 6X9, January 2012

“Poem by poem, Private McGraw..., each poem’s speaker, shares with us his journey through the landscapes of the American Civil War. McGraw, a Confederate soldier and racist, steps into the War in order to assure that slavery will exist long enough for him to purchase a slave with hopes to impress his love, Martha. As McGraw treks through the blood and mire, experiencing both triumph and tragedy, he begins to transform into a man of peace and compassion – a man who no longer sees a black man or a white man; he simply sees a man – a fellow, a brother.” (Anaphora website)

WHEN?

July 20, 2012 at 7:00p.m.

WHERE?

Vernon Historical Society
21 Church St.
Vernon, NJ 07462

The reading will take place in the Senior Center – middle, rear of the building.

QUESTIONS?

For information, call 973-764-6545.

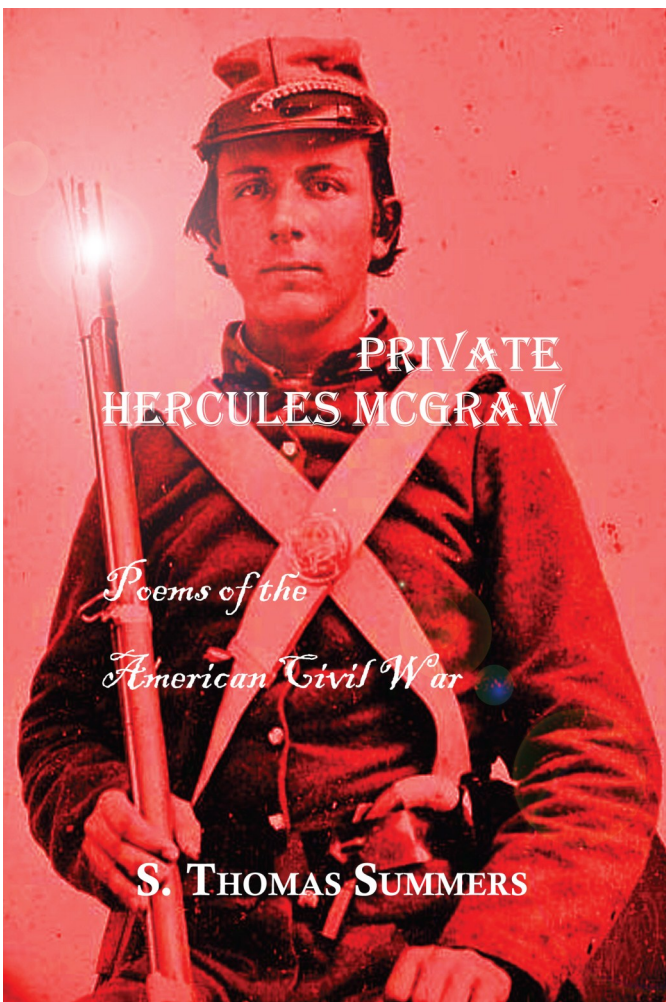

PRIVATE HERCULES

MCGRAW

Poems of the American Civil War

S. THOMAS SUMMERS

Meet author S. Thomas Summers at the book signing of his book, Private Hercules McGraw: Poems of the American Civil War.

$15, ISBN: 978-1-937536-14-5, LCCN: 2011945702, 86pp, 6X9, January 2012

“Poem by poem, Private McGraw..., each poem’s speaker, shares with us his journey through the landscapes of the American Civil War. McGraw, a Confederate soldier and racist, steps into the War in order to assure that slavery will exist long enough for him to purchase a slave with hopes to impress his love, Martha. As McGraw treks through the blood and mire, experiencing both triumph and tragedy, he begins to transform into a man of peace and compassion – a man who no longer sees a black man or a white man; he simply sees a man – a fellow, a brother.” (Anaphora website)

WHEN?

August 26, 2012, 3:30p.m.

WHERE?

Sunday Poetry at Esselon Coffee Roasting

Esselon Coffee Roasting
99 Russell Street
Hadley, MA 01035

QUESTIONS?

For information, call 413-585-1515 .

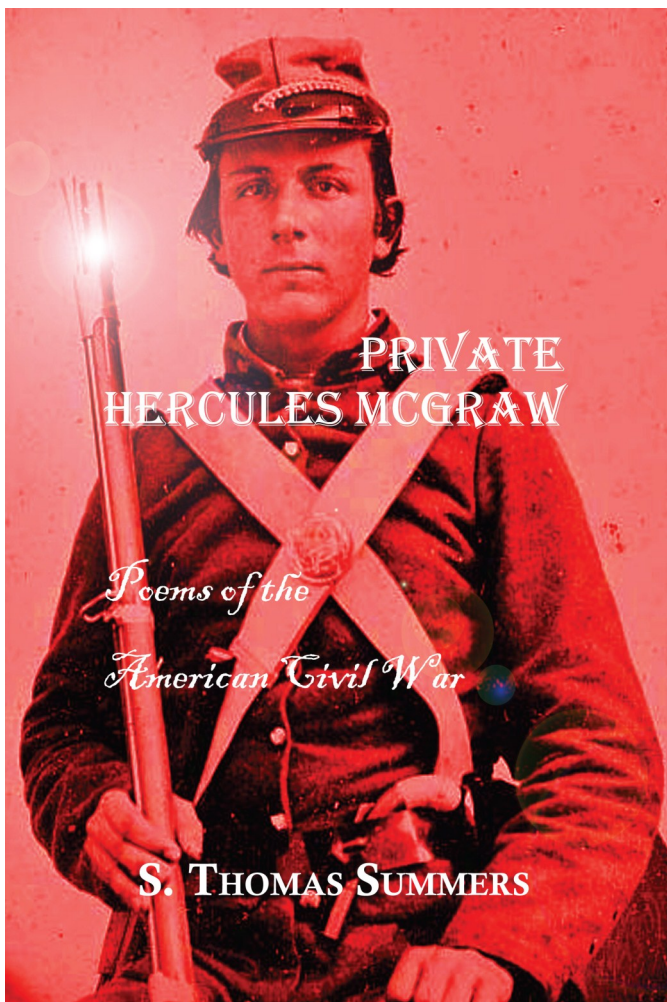

PRIVATE HERCULES

MCGRAW

Poems of the American Civil War

S. THOMAS SUMMERS

Meet author S. Thomas Summers at the book signing of his book, Private Hercules McGraw: Poems of the American Civil War.

$15, ISBN: 978-1-937536-14-5, LCCN: 2011945702, 86pp, 6X9, January 2012

“Poem by poem, Private McGraw..., each poem’s speaker, shares with us his journey through the landscapes of the American Civil War. McGraw, a Confederate soldier and racist, steps into the War in order to assure that slavery will exist long enough for him to purchase a slave with hopes to impress his love, Martha. As McGraw treks through the blood and mire, experiencing both triumph and tragedy, he begins to transform into a man of peace and compassion – a man who no longer sees a black man or a white man; he simply sees a man – a fellow, a brother.” (Anaphora website)

WHEN?

September 22, 2012, 8:00 p.m.

WHERE?

Classic Quiche Cafe
330 Queen Anne’s Road
Teaneck, NJ 07666

QUESTIONS?

For information, call (201) 692-0150.

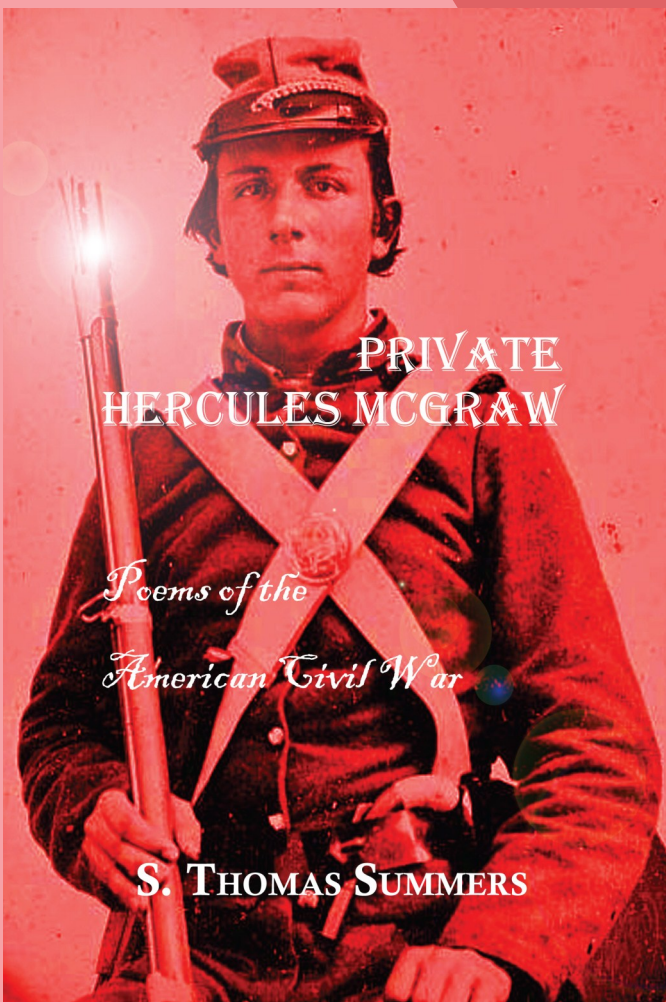

PRIVATE HERCULES

MCGRAW

Poems of the American Civil War

S. THOMAS SUMMERS

Meet author S. Thomas Summers at the book signing of his book, Private Hercules McGraw: Poems of the American Civil War.

$15, ISBN: 978-1-937536-14-5, LCCN: 2011945702,
86pp, 6X9, January 2012

“Poem by poem, Private McGraw..., each poem’s speaker, shares with us his journey through the landscapes of the American Civil War. McGraw, a Confederate soldier and racist, steps into the War in order to assure that slavery will exist long enough for him to purchase a slave with hopes to impress his love, Martha. As McGraw treks through the blood and mire, experiencing both triumph and tragedy, he begins to transform into a man of peace and compassion – a man who no longer sees a black man or a white man; he simply sees a man – a fellow, a brother.” (Anaphora website)

WHEN?

October 19, 2012, 7:00 p.m.

WHERE?

The Florida Library Poetry Café
Florida Public Library
4 Cohen Circle
Florida, NY 10921

QUESTIONS?

For information, call (845) 651-7659 .

Eloquent Tattoo

a murder mystery

Dr. Audrey Lavin

Meet author Dr. Audrey Lavin at the reading of her book, Eloquent Tattoo.

“Lap swimming, the work of Edgar Allan Poe, and a simmering romance are amateur sleuth Mary Beth Goldberg’s unlikely but invaluable tools as she confronts her latest mystery. Her native ingenuity figures in as well, and when author Audrey Lavin throws in a few slices of pizza and a handful of eccentric college students, these all add up to become the ingredients for irresistible storytelling!”

—Akiko Busch, Nine Ways to Cross a River, The Incidental Steward, her essays about land use and stewardship, will be published by Yale University Press in 2013.

“Eloquent is the title, elegant and murderously amusing is this academic mystery. The third in Lavin’s eloquent ‘whodunit?’ series, Eloquent Tattoo is another fun read.”

—Agatha prize winner Rhys Bowen, author of Naughty in Nice, the fifth Royal Spyness mystery, now in stores.

$15, ISBN: 978-1-937536-12-1, LCCN: 2011945566, 6X9”, 162pp

| When? | Where? | Questions? |
|--|--|---|
| Saturday, October 29, 2012 at 10:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m. | Book talk College Club Community Christian Church 210 North Main Street North Canton, OH 44720 | For more information, call (330) 499-5458. |

West Virginia Book Festival

Come stop by the Anaphora Literary Press table at the West Virginia Book Festival!

When?

Anaphora authors will once again participate in the West Virginia Book Festival. The schedule of readings/signings at the Anaphora table, during the Festival, will be as follows:

Saturday, October 13, 2012

- 9:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m.: Lynn Clarke
- 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.: Rainer J. Hanshe
- 12:00 p.m.-2:00 p.m.: Anna Faktorovich
- 2:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m.: Rainer J. Hanshe

Sunday, October 14, 2012

- 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m.: Lynn Clarke

Where?

Charleston Civic Center
200 Civic Center Drive
Charleston, WV 25301

Questions?

For more information, contact Pam May of the Kanawha Co. Public Library at pam.may@kanawha.lib.wv.us or visit <http://wvbookfestival.org>.

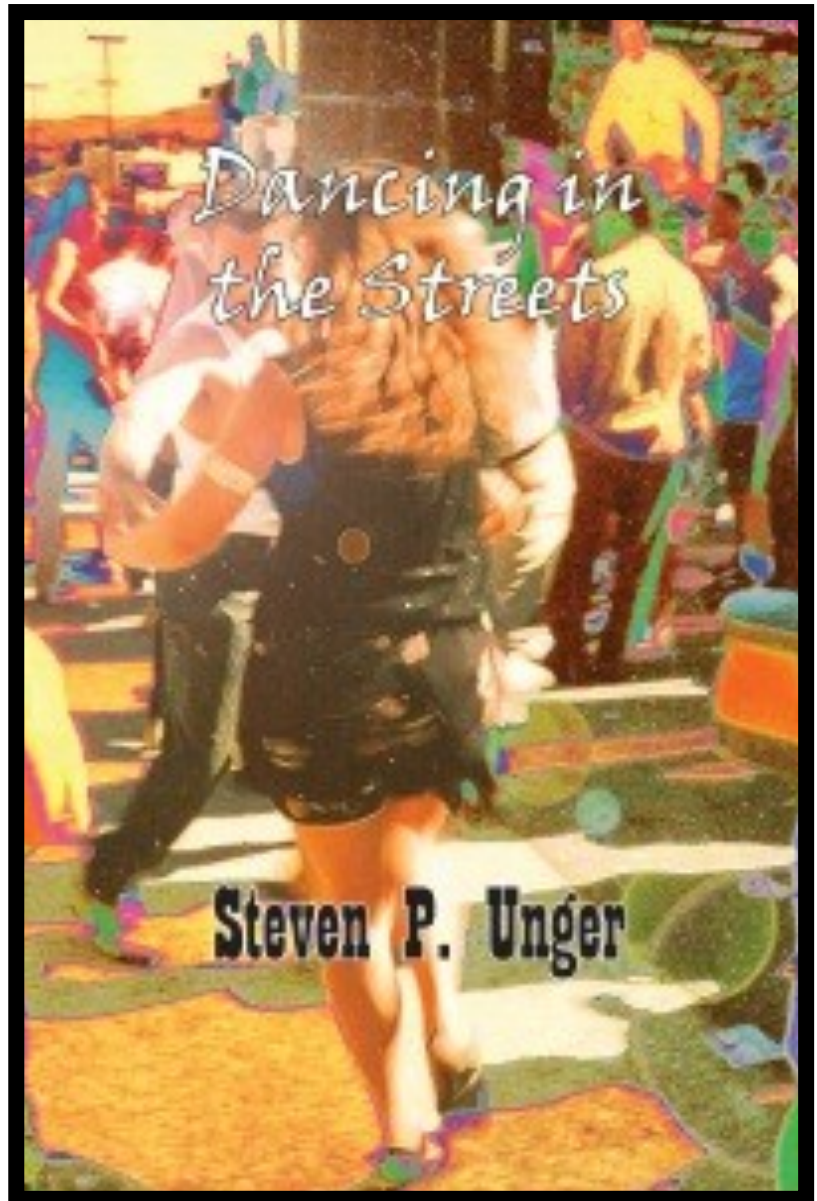

Dancing in the Streets

Steven P. Unger

Meet author Steven Unger at the book signing and official launch of his latest book, Dancing in the Streets.

Dancing in the Streets:* A Preview

“Now and then, you still can see the tattered remains of a bumper sticker exclaiming: ‘If you remember the ‘60s, you weren’t there!’ But Steven P. Unger is an exception to the rule—he took notes. As a result, his novel Dancing in the Streets is replete with unforgotten and unforgettable images of events and scenes that have long been lost in a smoke-filled haze. From the Merry Pranksters’ Wavy Gravy teaching breathing lessons outside Nixon’s first Inaugural Ball to a near-fatal encounter with Charles de Gaulle’s Republican Guard in Paris, there are compelling scenes from beginning to end no less cinematically vivid for the fact that they’re real. And while the story-chapters of Dancing in the Streets have more than just a ring of truth to them along with generous helpings of riotous comedy, there is also a compelling mystery haunting Unger’s alter ego, Steven Strazza: a deathbed revelation that leads to the discovery of long-buried secrets of murders affecting families on three different continents.” (Amazon.com)

When?

Saturday, June 23, 2012 at 1:00 p.m.

Where?

Barnes & Noble Birdcage Walk
6111 Sunrise Blvd.
Citrus Heights, CA 95610

Questions?

Call 916-853-1511.

THE BLUE MAROON MURDER

When?

June 23, 2012 at 2:00 p.m.

Where?

Book Carnival
348 S. Tustin
Orange, CA

Questions?

Call 714-538-3210.

Gloria McMillan

THE BLUE MAROON MURDER

GLORIA
MCMILLAN

“What is happening in the land of the “Maroons,” historic Midway University on Chicago’s south side? A famous campus figure is found blue in the face after some terrible accident—or murder.

Gloria McMillan weaves an engrossing tale of the swirling ambition and intrigues that draw in Dinah Cassidy, a 30-year-old literature grad student, who recently lost her young husband in a fatal bicycle accident.

Dinah’s fellow grad student Jerry Mason tells her that a mystery document has surfaced in the university’s rare books Library that may prove a love affair between Theodore Dreiser and Jane Addams! Just as Dinah lets this momentous news sink in, she learns that an ambitious and womanizing literature professor has been found dead outside the Theoretically Spring conference. Has somebody in the English Department turned to crime? Signs point to an inside job.

Dinah becomes an unlikely sleuth as she begins to put two and two together in the manner of other university sleuths such as Homer Kelly in Jane Langton’s New England novel Emily Dickinson is Dead and Kate Fansler in Amanda Cross’s Death in a Tenured Position, set at Harvard. But this is Chicago and nobody knows its rules better than Dinah and her grief counselor mentor Harry Wilton. Harry used to be a detective on the Chicago police force before turning Unitarian campus minister in his retirement. Dinah and Harry must outwit the cleverest South Chicago denizens before more of the English Department are blotted out.” (Anaphora website)

THE BLUE MAROON MURDER

WHEN?

Friday, June 29, 2012 at 2:00 p.m.

WHERE?

Laguna Beach Public Library
363 Glenneyre St.
Laguna Beach, CA 92651

QUESTIONS?

Call (949) 497-1733.

GLORIA McMILLAN

Meet author Gloria McMillan at the book signing of her novel, The Blue Maroon Murder.

THE BLUE MAROON MURDER

GLORIA
McMILLAN

“What is happening in the land of the “Maroons,” historic Midway University on Chicago’s south side? A famous campus figure is found blue in the face after some terrible accident—or murder.

Gloria McMillan weaves an engrossing tale of the swirling ambition and intrigues that draw in Dinah Cassidy, a 30-year-old literature grad student, who recently lost her young husband in a fatal bicycle accident.

Dinah’s fellow grad student Jerry Mason tells her that a mystery document has surfaced in the university’s rare books Library that may prove a love affair between Theodore Dreiser and Jane Addams! Just as Dinah lets this momentous news sink in, she learns that an ambitious and womanizing literature professor has been found dead outside the Theoretically Spring conference. Has somebody in the English Department turned to crime? Signs point to an inside job.

Dinah becomes an unlikely sleuth as she begins to put two and two together in the manner of other university sleuths such as Homer Kelly in Jane Langton’s New England novel Emily Dickinson is Dead and Kate Fansler in Amanda Cross’s Death in a Tenured Position, set at Harvard. But this is Chicago and nobody knows its rules better than Dinah and her grief counselor mentor Harry Wilton. Harry used to be a detective on the Chicago police force before turning Unitarian campus minister in his retirement. Dinah and Harry must outwit the cleverest South Chicago denizens before more of the English Department are blotted out.” (Anaphora website)